Notes to the form of proxy

1. Any person (whether a shareholder of the Company or not) may be appointed to act as a proxy.
2. The appointment of a proxy shall:
 - 2.1. be in any common form or in such other form as the Directors may approve under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing or if the appointor is a corporation under its common seal or under the hand of some officer or attorney duly authorised in that behalf;
 - 2.2. be deemed (subject to any contrary direction contained in the same) to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll and to vote on any resolution or amendment of a resolution put to the meeting for which it is given, as the proxy thinks fit, but shall not confer any further right to speak at the meeting except with the permission of the Chairman;
 - 2.3. unless the contrary is stated, be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates; and
 - 2.4. where it is stated to apply to more than one meeting, be valid for all such meetings as well as for any adjournment of any such meetings.
3. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed, or a copy of such authority, must be delivered by email to such address and within such time frame specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Company in relation to such meeting. A form of proxy not delivered in a manner so permitted shall be invalid (unless and to the extent that the Board, in relation to any form of proxy, waives any such requirement). The Board may at its discretion treat a faxed or other machine-made copy of a written instrument or Electronic Communication appointing a proxy as such an appointment and may at its discretion allow any proxy to be validly deposited, delivered or received after the time period before meetings by which proxies have to be deposited, delivered or received, but prior to the commencement of the relevant meeting. No form of proxy shall be valid after the expiry of 12 (twelve) months from the date named in it as the date of its execution except at an adjourned meeting or on a poll demanded at a meeting or an adjourned meeting in cases where the meeting was originally held within 12 (twelve) months from such date.
4. The proceedings at a meeting shall not be invalidated where a form of proxy is delivered in a manner permitted by Electronic Communication, but because of a technical problem it cannot be read by the recipient.
5. More than one proxy may be appointed to attend on the same occasion. When two or more valid but differing appointments of proxy are delivered in respect of the same share for use at the same meeting and in respect of the same matter, the one which is last validly delivered (regardless of its date or of the date of its execution) shall be treated as replacing and revoking the other or others as regards that share. If the Company is unable to determine which appointment was last validly delivered, none of them shall be treated as valid in respect of that share.
6. The accidental omission to send a form of proxy or the non-receipt of it by any person entitled to attend and vote at a meeting shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.
7. A vote given or poll demanded in accordance with the terms of a form of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the death or mental disorder of the principal or the revocation of the proxy, or of the authority under which the appointment of the proxy was executed or the transfer of the share in respect of which the appointment of the proxy is given unless notice in writing of such death, mental disorder, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the Transfer Secretaries via email to proxy@computershare.co.za at least 48 (forty-eight) hours before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting or the taking of the poll at which the instrument of proxy is used.
8. To be valid and effective, the form of proxy, duly completed, must be received by the addressee and within the time frame specified therein. Forms of proxy received after this time will be null and void, and associated votes will not be counted.
9. Documentary evidence establishing the authority of a person signing the form of proxy in a representative capacity must be attached to the form of proxy unless previously recorded by the Transfer Secretaries or waived by the Chairman of the EGM.
